

FOIA and ORA Response Service

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Open Records Act (ORA)

Streamline and expedite responses to reduce and comply with legal obligations.

Problem:

Each year, government agencies respond to thousands of Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Open Records Act (ORA) requests with limited dedicated staff and short deadlines.

Solution:

Elevate handles end-to-end response processing or singular tasks to supplement the work of your team.

Our teams manage:

- Intake: Calendar the response, interpret and clarify the request, and negotiate terms
- Preparation: Review documents to determine whether exemptions apply; redact, and assert exemptions as needed
- Production: Deliver responsive documents

Why choose Elevate for your FOIA or ORA response services?

- Consistent, efficient processes led by lawyers
- Use of technology built for response requests
- Ability to handle large volumes of requests with monthly reporting
- Fixed-fee pricing available
- Cost recovery feature, as allowed by statute
- Full-service end-to-end processing or singular tasks
